

"Read Me First":

Do this part first.

Designed to review something key the child heard or learned in large or small group that day or to help the child better understand a God-virtue-you connection.

"Read Me Next" or "Day 1":

Do this part second or sometime during the week.

Read "Day 2" and "Day 3" in succession.

A note about

GodTime™

We're trying out a new, more organic design.

Check it out, try it out, and let us know what you think.

Check out this new Web site for more ideas about putting the virtue into action.

READ ME FIRST
like on the way home

Respect
is showing others they are important by what you say and do

God created respect—did you know that? He shows us respect all the time by:

- paying attention to us,
- doing what's best for us, and
- (best of all) loving us so much that He gave us Jesus.

Because God shows us respect, He wants us to show others respect.

Find 1 Peter 2:17 in a Bible. Write it here

READ ME NEXT - DAY 1

Read Romans 13:1-2 first.
Does God really care about you? You bet. How can you tell? Because He gave you bosses and leaders. What?? Yep, God put leaders in your life to care for you and teach you—about life, about getting along with others, and about Him.

Your respect for others is connected to your respect for God.

respect others ↔ respect God

List some of your leaders:

home
school
somewhere else

Thank God for your leaders.

READ ME NEXT - DAY 2

Read Psalm 32:8-10 first.
Look at the leaders whose names you wrote on Day 1. Write one thing you've learned from one of those leaders:

Why do you think God wants you to show your leaders respect? Find some answers in the word search below. Hint: Hold the Word Bank up to a mirror.

Word Bank
rise? (n)omel
basee
love
wage leisu bnteece
pnteece
bnteece
wnteece
wnteece
wnteece

READ ME LAST - DAY 3

Read Luke 6:31 first.
Are you a leader? Are you the oldest kid in your family? Are you in charge of anything at home, school, or somewhere else? Do other kids ever want to do what you're doing? If so, you may already be a leader. But even if you don't think you're a leader yet, you want to be some day, right?

So how do you want to be treated as a leader? Interview someone in charge, like a parent or teacher, to get some ideas. Maybe God wants you to treat your leaders like you'd want to be treated.

Ask God to help you treat your leaders like you'd want to be treated.

Ask God to help you learn from a leader this week.

Ask these questions:

1. What do you want people to learn from you as a leader?
2. How did you learn to lead the way you do?
3. What are the 3 most important ways you want people to treat you as a leader?

GODTime™
week 1

September 2010
22 BASICS parent cue

Bible passage to read.
Something to think or talk about.

Something to do.
Something to pray about.

Parent Cue logo, indicating a resource designed to capture the imaginations of families at home.

Respect

is showing others they are important by what you say and do

God created respect—did you know that? He shows us respect all the time by:

- ➔ paying attention to us,
- ➔ doing what's best for us, and
- ➔ (best of all) loving us so much that He gave us Jesus.

Because God shows us respect, He wants us to show others respect.

Find 1 Peter 2:17 in a Bible.
Write it here

©2010 The reThink Group. All rights reserved.

READ ME NEXT - DAY 2

Read Psalm 32:8-10 first.

Look at the leaders whose names you wrote on Day 1. Write one thing you've learned from one of those leaders:

Why do you think God wants you to show your leaders respect? Find some answers in the word search below. Hint: Hold the Word Bank up to a mirror.

Word Bank

teach wisdom
beace
love
lesu
wise
ustrine
blotioou benefit succeed

P G Y X L Z L F X E Z T I E C H Y M A E S I G Y P N J B O A J A O V I E B B S L E A R N
 L O V E C U T U R W O H
 Q U F E C U L Z L E A R N
 G R N O M R A C H O P N T
 W H B B S L E A R N

READ ME NEXT - DAY 1

Read Romans 13:1-2 first.

Does God really care about you? You bet. How can you tell? Because He gave you bosses and leaders. What?? Yep, God put leaders in your life to care for you and teach you—about life, about getting along with others, and about Him.

Your respect for others is connected to your respect for God.

respect others ↔ respect God

List some of your leaders:

home ➔
school ➔
somewhere else ➔

Thank God for your leaders.

Ask God to help you treat your leaders like you'd want to be treated.

Ask God to help you learn from a leader this week.

Read Luke 6:31 first.

Are you a leader? Are you the oldest kid in your family? Are you in charge of anything at home, school, or somewhere else? Do other kids ever want to do what you're doing? If so, you may already be a leader. But even if you don't think you're a leader yet, you want to be some day, right?

So how do you want to be treated as a leader? Interview someone in charge, like a parent or teacher, to get some ideas. Maybe God wants you to treat your leaders like you'd want to be treated.

READ ME LAST - DAY 3

For more ideas about putting respect into action, visit www.studio252.tv.

Ask these questions:

1. What do you want people to learn from you as a leader?
2. How did you learn to lead the way you do?
3. What are the 3 most important ways you want people to treat you as a leader?

GODTime™
week 1

September 2010